

POLICE OFFICER

(Competitive Class)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF WORK

This is beginning level police work in the protection of life and property through the enforcement of laws and ordinances.

Work involves the responsibility for performing routine police assignments which are received from police officers of superior rank. Work normally consists of routine patrol, preliminary investigation, and traffic regulation and investigation duties in a designated area on an assigned shift which may be performed in cruiser cars, motorcycles, or on foot. Work may involve an element of personal danger and employees must be able to act without direct supervision and to exercise independent judgment in meeting emergencies. Assignments are general and special instructions are received from a superior officer who reviews work methods and results through reports, personal inspection, and discussion.
